Spring Break Soccer Camp

April 5th - 9th, 2010

This five day camp is an excellent opportunity for the recreational player, as well as the advanced player, to improve their soccer skills and knowledge of the game.

All of our instructors are licensed soccer coaches who understand the philosophy that Coach Starr brings to the Spring Break Soccer Camp. We understand the balance of having the kids work hard while enjoying themselves.

Topics covered during the week include individual skills, 1v1 attacking and defending, crossing and finishing, combination play, and team defending.

The Five Hour Camp will cover team tactics that all high level players need to develop into versatile soccer players.

Which camp option is best for my child?

One Hour Camp $30

Recommended for players ages 4 to 6.

8:30am to 9:30am

Fun, skill-building games are designed to encourage and develop the up-and-coming soccer player.

Three Hour Camp $85

Recommended for players ages 7 to 18.

8:30am to 11:30am

Emphasis is placed on individual skill development and combination play through one-on-one games and small-sided games.
